MidMATH Camp with the Learning Resource Center

MidMath Camp will aid students who have fallen behind in math due to the effects of COVID, virtual schooling, or other reasons and will reinforce important skills specific to grade-level math topics in middle school.

Students who attend the workshop will:

- Enjoy high interest, hands-on lessons
- Engage in problem-solving strategies
- Explore specific grade-level concepts (such as order of operations, whole numbers, fractions, decimal arithmetic, word problems, etc.)
- Reinforce math skills through interaction and review
- Build confidence in mathematics

LRC's commitment to your child's success ensures that your student will receive quality instruction from highly-qualified instructors in a small-group setting.

LRC is accredited by Cognia and has a proud 48-year history of providing premier academic programs designed to help all students maximize their learning potential.
